

Serving Legal Needs of Business in USASM

CLG serves business clients in connection with their business legal needs within the United States. CLG offers a broad range of legal services to domestic and international clientele and include:

Business Law

- forming partnerships, corporations, LLCs and joint-ventures
- shareholder, operating and buy-sell agreements
- distribution and supply agreements
- negotiating and drafting commercial leases
- purchase and sale of businesses
- employment and consulting issues

Intellectual Property and Technology Law

- trademark and copyright registrations
- website user agreements and IT service agreements
- licensing agreements
- trademark protection and online trademark infringement

Virtual General Counsel Service

Provide general counsel service for a flat monthly fee:

- assist with establishing a subsidiary in USA, finding office, local partner and hiring
- business negotiations and resolutions of disputes
- review, draft and negotiations of contracts
- business negotiations and resolutions of disputes
- attend board and business meetings
- protection of legal rights and mitigating risk of litigation

CLG's clients include: manufactures, media and advertisement companies, international distributors, retailers, software developers, construction and design companies, wine company and e-commerce.